Lodge News

I want to thank everyone for selecting me as your Exalted Ruler for this coming year. I am really looking forward to serving our Lodge. I will do everything in my power to protect and grow it this coming year. I would like to thank David Thaler for his service to the lodge this past year and for helping me prepare for this next year.

The installation of the 2023 officers was performed by the Past Exalted Rulers Association on March 25th. PER David Thaler was present with a plaque and a Grand Lodge Certificate of Recognition for the past year's achievements. Also recognized was Dan Bowman for Officer of the Year and James Stewart, Elk of the Year. Congratulations to all.

On February 25th, several of the 2023 officers attended a Kollege of Knowledge in Newark where they were able to obtain information on their new positions in the Lodge. The session was very informative to the new officers.

I want to thank Stacy Wright for hosting the euchre tournaments for the three Saturdays in March. Everyone enjoyed them and looking forward to many more. Thanks Stacy!

As many know, the Gallipolis Elks hosted the South Central District meeting on March 18-19. Many activities were planned for this event which included Paul Doeffenger playing for Friday steak night, which was a sellout; St. Patty's Day party on Saturday evening and all the normal activities associated with a District meeting. I want to thank all the members of our Lodge for the hospitality they showed to the other members of our District and all the Officers and volunteers that made the District meeting run smoothly.

For upcoming activities in April we have the Easter Egg Hunt at the Farm on 8 April starting at 1 PM. Other events for May and June are listed in this newsletter. I'm looking forward to a great and active Lodge year.

Mike Null, Exalted Ruler
