Gallipolis Elks Lodge #107

Oct 2021

A Fraternal Organization

Make Your Friend
Your Brother

Exalted Ruler's Message

September has been a busy month at the lodge with the restart of several seasonal activities. Of course the most popular activity has been the beginning of the Ohio State Football season followed by the NFL. We have all the football games available on several televisions. Randy Finney has again volunteered to manage the monthly Texas Holdem' Tournaments. They are on the 2nd Sunday of the month @ 1 PM. We also have the weekly euchre games on Tuesday along with the weekly Texas Holdem' games on Sunday @ 5:15 conducted by Tommy Meadows. There are a lot of other activities scheduled for our members so be sure to read the newsletter to keep current.

The start of a new school year also brings the availability of the Elks National Foundation scholarships for graduating seniors. Seniors that apply are eligible to compete for scholarships ranging from $1000 to the top award of $50,000. Go online to the Elks website, elks.org, and go to the Elks National Foundation tab and click on scholarships or go to elks.org/scholar. It could be worth your while.

Thanks again, Jim Duke, ER

Emblem Club

Fall is in the air! And what a perfect season to help the community through our many dedicated committees and long-standing partnership with the Gallipolis Elks. If you missed our September meeting, please acknowledge your interest in helping any committee of your choice. We are still seeking fresh ideas for fundraisers, and hope to see you at the upcoming October meeting, to be held the 14th at 630pm, and will initiate more eager members to help our organization! Hors-d'oeuvres will follow along with our monthly drawing. Hope to see you there!

In addition, we have the First State Meeting in Wooster over the weekend of October 16-17th under the new State President, Diana Jones. We are also eager to help her charity this year, Southern Ohio Pregnancy Center. We have provided a tote at the lodge with the needed list of items to collect any donations. Moreover, State has decided to do a gown sale at the upcoming Wooster meeting to donate the sales to Diana's charity. So, if you need to downsize gowns, skirts, or tops - then please add those to the tote in the lodge as well. You can price the items or simply donate to the charity. Anything we can do to help others makes a difference.

Tammi Sommer, President

The Vacant Chair

Merrill Null
Lloyd Shaver

We shall meet, but we shall miss him. There will be the vacant chair.
But though we no more possess him, Still our hearts his memory bear.
But a while ago we gathered, Friendship beaming in each eye. Now the golden cord is severed, He has passed to realms on high.

Gallipolis Elks #107 used $2500 from the Beacon Grant to support Poppy's Tea Shop and Food Pantry and the remaining $1000 for the Grace United Methodist Church Food Pantry. Poppy's serves the homeless and needy by providing them with clothing, hot meals, hot drinks and every two weeks a box of groceries. During the month of December they provided over 1700 hot meals and 300 boxes of food. No one in need is turned away. All of this is made possible because of donations of clothing, food and monies to the pantry. Pictured from left to right are Greg Hall, owner and operator of Poppy's Tea Shop and food pantry, Fred Bryant, Secretary Gallipolis Elks.
